SUBJECT: Kinship Care Payment Levels

Effective July 1, 2004, the Kinship Care payment allowance was reverted back to the original levels when the program began in October 2001. Children age 13 or older receive a higher payment than children 12 and under. Each eligible child receives a payment equal to the payment for one child. E&P policy updates referenced in this PT will be available in the next E&P policy release as follows:

A-2630 KINSHIP CARE PROGRAM

Effective October 1, 2001, children living with a NNCT relative may receive a TANF payment allowance which is a percentage of the State of Nevada foster care rate. Children age 13 or older receive a higher payment than children 12 and under. Each eligible child receives a payment equal to the payment for one child. See manual section C-140 for payment amounts.

A-2630.2 Benefit Amounts and Eligibility Tests

The Kinship Care program provides a TANF payment allowance which is a percentage of the state foster care rate. Children age 13 or older receive a higher payment than children 12 and under. The higher payment is effective the month after the month

C-140.1 TANF Need Standards Chart

KINSHIP CARE PAYMENT ALLOWANCE
0 through 12 years of age	$534 for each child
13 years of age or older	$616 for each child
